5) Rights and obligations of membership

5. 1) A member of the company shall remain a member thereof until he/she ceases to be the registered owner, as reflected in the relevant Deeds Office as an owner of a unit in the Township and a member shall therefore not be entitled to resign as a member of the company unless the person ceases to be a registered owner of a unit in the Township; provided that cessation of registered ownership will be deemed to be an irrevocable application for the cessation of membership and acceptance thereof by the directors in terms of the Memorandum of Incorporation.
In addition to the provisions of article 6.11 below, cessation of membership does not affect any existing obligations or debt, or existing or pending actions for whatever reason, in respect of the particular member, whether in a personal or representative capacity.
- 5.2) The rights and obligations of a member shall not be transferable, and every member shall:
 - 5.2. 1) further, to the best of his ability, support the objects and interests of the company;
 - 5.2.2) observe all rules made by the company or the directors;
 - 5.2.3) pay all levies due by the member, to the company;
 - 5.2.4) comply with the Conditions of Establishment of the Township;
 - 5.2.5) abide by the Memorandum of Incorporation and adhere to the rules made in terms of the Memorandum of Incorporation from time to time, provided that nothing contained in this Memorandum of Incorporation of the company shall prevent a member from ceding his rights in terms of this Memorandum of Incorporation as security to the mortgagee of the member's unit;

- 5.3) No member shall let or otherwise part with occupation of his unit, whether temporarily or otherwise, unless he has agreed in writing with the proposed occupier of such unit, as a stipulatio alteri in favour of the company that such occupier shall be bound by all the terms and conditions of this Memorandum of Incorporation and any rules made there under, and such written agreement is lodged with the company prior to the proposed occupier taking occupation of the unit in question.
- 5.4) Every member shall, when he agrees to transfer ownership of his unit in the Township, set it as a condition of the agreement of sale and transfer, that the new owner shall apply for membership of the company and be accepted as member of the company as provided for in article 15 (3) and therefore become a member of this company, accepting his/her/its obligations towards the company as member.
- 5.5) No member shall be entitled to dispose of a unit in the Township to any other person without the written consent of the company first having been obtained by the authorised agent or the managing agent, which consent will not be withheld unless:
- 5.5.1) such member is in arrear with any levies, penalties, fines or interest or other payment due to the company in terms of the Memorandum of Incorporation or the rules or otherwise;
 - 5.5.2) such member is in breach with any of his obligations towards the company in terms of the Memorandum of Incorporation or the rules and has failed to remedy such breach after having been called upon by the company, in writing, to remedy such breach and remain in breach; mere failure to remedy breach cannot take away rights/privileges - as member has right to due process first.
 - 5.5.3) the prospective transferee has not applied for membership of the company, subject to article 15(3), where such application is required, or has not been accepted as member of the company.
- 5.6) No member shall be entitled to effect transfer of a unit in the Township to any other person until the company, under the hand of its authorised representative or the managing agent, has certified by way of a clearance certificate that such member as at date of transfer has complied with all his/her/its financial and other obligations towards the company.
- 5.7) The provisions of article 1 .5(5.5) and (5.6) shall apply mutatis mutandis to any alienation of an undivided share in a unit in the Township.

5.8) The directors of the company may impose an additional, reasonable fee upon the members of the company for the issuing of the Clearance Certificate as referred to in article 1 .5(5.6). The said fee will be determined by the directors or the managing agent from time to time and will be subject to ratification by the members in general meeting.

6) Levies

- 6.1) The cost and expenses of the company shall be borne by the members and the directors may from time to time propose levies to be paid by members for the purpose of meeting all the expenses which the company has incurred or will incur, or which the directors reasonably anticipate the company will need to provide as reserves in pursuit of its objectives or in the pursuit of its business.
- 6.2) At the annual general meeting the directors shall present to the members for approval a budget of income and expenditure for the next financial year and a normal levy proposal for the next financial year. The levies so approved shall apply until the end of that next financial year.
- 6.3) The notice of the annual general meeting in 6.2 above will contain an estimate of the amount which will be required by the company to meet its expenses during that financial year and the new levy proposed for approval by the members.
- 6.4) The directors may propose the creating of a reserve/s from levies but the budget presented for approval by the members must indicate an amount to be collected through levies to be held as reserve/s in anticipation of future expenditure and the budget must indicate what the anticipated future expenditure will be.
- 6.5) The directors shall advise each member in writing as soon as practically possible after the annual general meeting of the amount of levies payable by such member for that next financial year.
- 6.6) The annual levy proposed to and approved at the annual general meeting shall be payable by the members of the company, provided that if the member of the company is a corporate entity or a trust, the natural person in article 1 .5 (2.3) above will be a co-principal debtor.
- 6.7) The annual levy proposed and approved at the annual general meeting shall be payable in equal monthly installments commencing on the first day of the first month of the following financial year and on the first day of each month thereafter up to and including the next approved levy increase.
- 6.8) The directors may propose an increase in levies or special once-off levies to meet existing or future extraordinary expenses in pursuit of the objectives of the company; provided that the directors shall prepare a budget and proper motivation accompanied by a detailed feasibility study and the proposed date of implementation of the increase in levies or the special levy to be presented at a general meeting or annual general meeting of the company for approval.

- 6.9) All levies become due, in terms of article 1 .5 (6)(6.7). on the first day of the first month of the following financial year and on the first day of each month thereafter up to and including the next approved levy increase and an increase in levies and special levies referred to in article 1 .5(6)(6.8) become due as provided for in the resolution approving those levies and all levies may be recovered by the company by action in any competent Court having jurisdiction, from the member(s) who were owner[s] of the unit(s) at the time when such resolution was passed.
- 6.10) The directors shall be empowered in addition to such other rights as the company may have in law against its members to determine the rate of interest from time to time chargeable upon arrear levies. Should the directors fail to make any determination of the interest rate, then and in that event, the prescribed rate of interest, as may be applicable from time to time in terms of the Prescribed Rate of Interest Act, Act No. 55 of 1975 shall be applicable. Interest shall be calculated monthly in arrears and compounded. Interest imposed by the directors shall be subject to review by the members in general meeting and shall not exceed any limitations set by legislation.
- 6.11) The obligation of a member to pay a levy and interest shall cease upon his ceasing to be a member without prejudice to the company's right to recover arrear levies and interest and penalties, fines and other amounts due to the company. No levies, interest, penalties, fines, or other amounts paid by a member shall under any circumstances be repayable by the company upon his ceasing to be a member. A member's successor in title to a unit shall be liable for payment of levies as from the date upon which he becomes the registered owner of the unit as reflected in the Deeds Registry.
- 6.12) No unit(s) registered in a member's name can be transferred without a Clearance Certificate as referred to in article 1 .5(5)(5.6) first being obtained from the company confirming that all levies, penalties, fines or other amounts due and interest have been paid up to and including date of registration of transfer thereof.
- 6.13) A member shall be liable for and pay all legal costs, including costs as between attorney and own client, collection commission, expenses and charges incurred by the company in obtaining the recovery of arrear levies, penalties, fines, interest or any other arrear amounts due and owing by such owner to the company or in enforcing compliance with the Act, the provisions of this Memorandum of Incorporation, or the rules.

- 6.14) The directors may from time to time determine a charge based on reasonable costs incurred by the company to be levied against members in arrears, as an administration charge payable to the company or to the managing agent.
- 6.15) All payments made by a member and received by the company, shall be allocated firstly towards interest, legal costs and thereafter towards capital. The board reserves the right to allocate payments as they deem fit in the absence of an express allocation by the member. In the absence of an express allocation by the board or the member, all payments will be allocated to the debt newest in time. Any payments in lieu of a debt that has been handed over to an attorney for collection will be deducted from the most recent debt, as well as the costs incurred to date of payment. All subsequent payments will be allocated to the older amounts outstanding, until the total amount outstanding has been recovered.
- 6.16) Should a member fail to effect payment of levies on due date, the full outstanding balance remaining unpaid for the financial year shall become due and payable without notice and/or demand but the board may at their sole election and discretion agree to a re-payment arrangement with the member concerned and subject to such conditions as the board may impose. The board, in managing the financial obligation and cash flow requirements of the company, may at their sole election and discretion agree to reduce, vary or discount the full outstanding balance remaining unpaid by a member, subject to such conditions as the board may impose and subject further to the ratification by the members, with or without amendment at the next general meeting of the company following such determination.

Article 3 - Members' Meetings

3.1 Requirement to hold meetings

- 1) The company shall, within 6 (six) months after the end of each financial year, hold a general meeting in addition to any other general meetings during that year, and shall specify the meeting as such in the notices, in terms of article 3.4 below, calling such meeting;
- 2) The abovementioned general meeting shall be called the "annual general meeting" and all other general meetings shall be called "special general meetings".

3.2 Members' right to requisition a meeting

The right of members to requisition a meeting, as set out in section 61(3) of the Act, may be exercised by at least 10% of the voting rights entitled to be exercised in relation to the matters to be considered at the meeting despite the provisions of that section.

3.3 Location of members' meetings

The authority of the company's board of directors to determine the location of any members' meeting, and the authority of the company to hold any such meeting in the Republic or in any foreign country, as set out in section 61(9) of the Act is limited or restricted to the extent that all members' meetings shall be convened to take place at a location, preferably within the Township or within close proximity thereof.

3.4 Notice of members meetings

The minimum number of days for the company to deliver a notice of a members meeting to the members, as required by section 62 of the Act is as provided for in section 62(1) of the Act, being 15 (fifteen) business days.

3.5 Electronic participation in members' meetings

The authority of the company to conduct a meeting entirely by electronic communication, or to provide for participation in a meeting by electronic communication, as set out in section 63 of the Act is not limited or restricted by this Memorandum of Incorporation; provided that the electronic communication employed ordinarily enables all persons participating in that meeting to communicate concurrently with each other without an intermediary, and to participate reasonably effectively at the meeting.

3.6 Quorum for Members' meetings

- 1) The quorum requirements for a members' meeting to begin, or for a matter to be considered are:
 - a) 80 (eighty) votes entitled to be exercised, present in person or by proxy, and
 - b) at least 3 (three) members being present.
- 2) The time periods allowed in section 64(4) and (5) of the Act apply to the company, subject to the following variations: -
 - a) If, within 15 (fifteen) minutes after the appointed time for a meeting to begin, the requirements of article 3 (3.6)(1) above have not been satisfied, the meeting is postponed without motion, vote or further notice, for 1 (one) week;

- b) If, within 15 (fifteen) minutes after the appointed time for a meeting to begin, the requirements of article 3 (3.6) (1) above, if applicable, for consideration of a particular matter to begin have not been satisfied: -
 - (i) if there is other business on the Agenda of the meeting, consideration of that matter may be postponed to a later time in the meeting without motion or vote; or
 - ii) if there is no other business on the Agenda of the meeting, the meeting is adjourned for 1 (one) week, without motion or vote.
 - c) The person intended to preside at a meeting that cannot begin due to the operation of article 3 (3.6)(1) above, where a quorum is not present, may extend the 15 (fifteen) minute limit for a reasonable period on the grounds as specified in sub -section 64 (5) of the Act.
- 3) The authority of a meeting to continue to consider a matter after the quorum has been met, so long as at least 1 (one) member remains present, as set out in section 64(9) of the Act, is not limited or restricted by this Memorandum of Incorporation.

3.7 Adjournment of members' meetings

- 1) If a quorum has not been reached within 15 (fifteen) minutes after the appointed time for the meeting to begin or such extended period as the chairman directed, the chairman appointed for the meeting will be authorized to adjourn the meeting of the members for 1 (one) week.
- 2) The company is not required to give further notice of a meeting that is postponed or adjourned in terms of article 3 (3.7) (1) above, unless the location for the meeting is different from: -
 - (a) the location of the postponed or adjourned meeting; or
 - (b) a location announced at the time of adjournment, in the case of an adjourned meeting.
- 3) If, at the time appointed in terms of article 3 (3.7) for a postponed meeting to begin, or for an adjourned meeting to resume, the requirements of article 3 (3.6) (1) above, have not been satisfied, the members of the company present in person or by proxy will be deemed to constitute a quorum.
- 4) The maximum period allowable for an adjournment of a members' meeting is (sixty) business days after the date upon which the adjournment occurred.

3.8 Members' resolutions

- 1) For any ordinary resolution to be adopted at a members' meeting, it must be supported by at more than 50% of the member votes entitled to be exercised, present in person or by proxy, despite the provisions of section 65(7) of the Act.
- 2) For a special resolution to be adopted at a members' meeting, it must be supported by at least 75% of the votes entitled to be exercised, present in person or by proxy, as provided in section 65(7) of the Act.

- 3) A special resolution adopted at a members' meeting is not required for a matter to be determined by the company, except those matters set out in section 65(11) of the Act and the following matters: -
- a) amend the company's Memorandum of Incorporation to the extent required by section 16 (1)(c) and section 36(2)(a) of the Act;
 - b) ratify a consolidation of a company's Memorandum of Incorporation, as contemplated in section 18 (1)(b) of the Act;
 - c) ratify actions by the company or directors in excess of their authority, as contemplated in section 20 (2) of the Act;
 - f) authorise the board to grant financial assistance in the circumstances contemplated in section 44 (3)(a)(ii) or 45 (3)(a)(ii) of the Act;
 - i) approve the voluntary winding up of the company, as contemplated in section 80 (1) of the Act;
 - j) approve the winding up of a company in the circumstances contemplated in section 81 (1) of the Act;
 - (l) approve any proposed fundamental transaction, to the extent required by Part A of Chapter 5 of the Act; or
 - (m) revoke a resolution contemplated in section 164 (9)(c) of the Act.

3.9 Votes of members

At every general meeting: -

- 1) Every member, in person or by proxy and entitled to vote, shall have 1 (one) vote for each unit registered in his name;
- 2) If a unit is registered in the name of more than one person, then all such co-owners shall jointly have 1 (one) vote;
- 3) Save as expressly provided for, no person other than a member, duly registered and who shall have paid every levy or other sum due and payable to the company in respect of or arising out of his membership, and who is not under suspension, shall be entitled to be present or to vote on any question, either personally or by proxy, at any general meeting;
- 4) At any general meeting, a resolution put to the vote of the meeting, shall be decided on a poll, unless a show of hands (before or in the declaration of the result of a poll) is demanded by the chairman or members referred to in section 63 (4)(2)(vi) of the Act and unless a show of hands is so demanded, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has, on a poll, been carried or carried unanimously or by a particular majority or has been declined, and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the company shall be conclusive evidence of the fact. If a show of hands is demanded a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has, on a show of hands, been carried or carried unanimously or by a particular majority or has been declined, and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the company shall be conclusive evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or the proportion of the votes recorded in favour or against such resolution. The demand for a show of hands may be withdrawn.

- 5) A poll shall be taken in such manner as the chairman directs, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting. Two (2) members shall be elected to determine the result of the poll. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the resolution shall fail. In the case of equality of votes for and against any resolution, the resolution shall be deemed to have been defeated.
- 6) Every resolution and every amended resolution proposed for adoption by a general meeting, shall be seconded at the meeting and if not so seconded, shall be deemed not to have been proposed.
- 7) Unless any member present in person or by proxy at a general meeting shall, before closure of the meeting, have objected to any declaration made by the chairman of the meeting as to the result of any voting at the meeting, whether by a show of hands or by a poll, or validity of the procedure at such meeting, such declaration by the chairman shall be deemed to be a true and correct statement of the voting, and the meeting shall in all aspects be deemed to have been properly and validly constituted and conducted and an entry in the minutes to the effect that any motion has been carried or defeated. with or without record of the number of votes recorded in favour of or against such motion. shall be conclusive evidence of the votes so recorded.

Article 4 - Directors and Officers

4.1 Composition of the Board of Directors

- 1) The board of directors of the company comprises the elected directors. and their alternate directors each of whom is to: -
 - a) be elected in the following manner: -
 - i) There shall be a board of directors of the company which shall consist of not less than 3 (three) and not more than 10 (ten) directors;
 - ii) directors shall serve for a term of 1 (one) year or until the next members' Meeting, and shall be eligible for re-election;
 - iii) If a member's meeting for the election of directors is not convened before the expiry of the 1 (one) year term within which a director serves, then and in that event. such director (s) shall continue to hold office from the date of his/her/their appointment until the next annual general meeting following such appointment and at which meeting each director shall be deemed to have retired from office but will be eligible for re-election to the board of directors at such meeting;
 - iv) Nominations for election of directors must be delivered to the company or to any other person acting on behalf of the company (including a board member or duly appointed managing agent) at any time before commencement of the proceedings or meeting at which the nomination is to be considered;

- v) Upon any vacancy occurring in the board of directors prior to the next annual general meeting, the vacancy in question shall be filled by a person to be nominated by the chairman of the board of directors for the time being and in his absence or inability, the vice-chairman;
 - vi) Within 7 (seven) days of the holding of each annual general meeting, the board of directors shall meet and shall elect from their own numbers, the chairman and the vice-chairman, who shall hold their respective offices until the annual general meeting held next after their said appointments, provided that the office of the chairman or vice-chairman shall ipso facto be vacated by the director holding such office upon his ceasing to be a director for any reason.
- 2) The chairman of the board of directors for the time being, and in his absence or inability to act, the vice-chairman of the board of directors may, upon any vacancy occurring in the board of directors, appoint a director to fill such vacancy until election of board members at the next annual general meeting or special general meeting convened for this purpose and a director so appointed will have all the rights and duties as in terms of the Act and/or the Memorandum of Incorporation as if he/she was elected in terms of this Memorandum of Incorporation.
- 3) In addition to the elected directors the person who is appointed from time to time as the company's "Chief Executive Officer" (hereinafter the "CEO") must serve as ex officio director of the company, as contemplated in section 66(4) of the Act. The person holding that office or enjoying that status automatically becomes a director on assuming the designated position provided that he or she delivers his or her written consent referred to in section 66(7) of the Act and will by default cease to hold such office as director if he or she resigns or is removed for whatever reason from such office. Save for the aforesaid limitation the powers and functions of the CEO are not limited as provided for in Section 66(5)(d) of the Act. Articles 4.1(4)(a) to (b), 4.1(5) do not apply to the ex officio appointment as provided for herein.
- 4) In addition to satisfying the qualification and eligibility requirements set out in section 69 of the Act, to become or remain a director of the company, a person must satisfy the following additional eligibility requirements and qualifications: -
- a) be a paid-up member of the company at the time of appointment as director;
 - b) may not be in breach of any of his/her obligations as a member of the company, as stipulated in the Memorandum of Incorporation or the rules; mere failure to remedy breach cannot take away rights - as member has right to due process before eligibility is suspended.

- c) may not be disqualified from acting as director of the company in terms of the Companies Act.
- 5) Each appointed (not elected) director of the company serves for an indefinite term. until substituted by the person or entity that made the appointment or until the next annual general meeting following his appointment.
- 6) A director shall be deemed to have vacated his office as such when: -
- a) he/she resigns his office by notice in writing to the company;
 - b) he/she has been disqualified to act as a director in terms of the provisions of section 69 of the Act;
 - c) he/she has been discharged from office under circumstances in terms of section 71 of the Act;
 - d) he/she becomes of unsound mind;
 - e) he/she is absent from more than 2 (two) meetings of the directors without leave having been granted to him and if the board so resolve;
